

L C Y S

Improving Lives Through Literacy

Art Sale

Beautifully framed, matted, signed and numbered Canadian art prints.

ONLY $160.00 each

Wonderful gift or addition to your collection

Contact us at:
905-853-6279 or info@lcys.ca to make your purchase.

Photos and descriptions on the next pages.

“Barn Kids” by Arnold Nogt
111/395      46X37cm (visible image)

Arnold Nogy

Nogy’s inspiration for his wonderful nature scenes comes from the many excursions he takes into the lakes and forests around Georgian Bay. His watercolours have been prominently displayed at the Buckhorn Wildlife Art Festival and the Society of Animals Artists show, in New York. In 1997 he won the design contract to create four collector sets for the Royal Canadian Mint.

---

“Coach” by Les Tait
81/395      36 X47cm (visible image)

Les Tait

Tait has been working as a serious artist since 1982. His work has always won top honours in the many exhibitions he has entered, including the Beckett Award of Excellence. He has been commissioned by the Toronto Blue Jays, the NHL Players Association, and the Trilon Corporation. His work can be found in many private and corporate collections.

---

“Embrace” by Rajka Kupesic
157/395      47 X 37 cm (visible image)

Rajka Kupesic

Kupesic’s pictorial paintings are usually parts of a narratives. Each of her paintings is unique and is yet part of a whole story. She illustrated an editions of Louis Hemon’s book Maria Chapdelaine and contributed to the publishing of the story Clair’s Gift. Among those who have commissioned her to do family portraits are the late Pierre Elliot Trudeau, Wayne Gretzky, and John Arpin. She is represented by the Beckett Gallery in Hamilton and the Midtown Gallery in Toronto. Her works are collected widely.

---

“Big Swing” by Les Tait

28/395 36 X47cm (visible image)

Les Tait

Tait has been working as a serious artist since 1982. His work has always won top honours in the many exhibitions he has entered, including the Beckett Award of Excellence. He has been commissioned by: the Blue Jays in 1997, the NHL Players Association, and the Trilon Corporation. His work can be found in many private and corporate collections.

---

“Brothers” by Neville Clarke

159/395 36 X47cm (visible image)

Neville Clarke

After completing his studies at the Ontario College of Art, Clarke continued his art education while living in Holland, France, and England. His success of years of mastering the watercolour medium is obvious in his delightful, dramatic, figurative work. He is one of the directors of the Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolour.

---

“The Secret”

by Claudia Jean McCabe

107/395

Claudia Jean McCabe

McCabe is an elected member of the Society of Canadian Artists. Her printings are held in private, corporate, and government collections around the world. This award winning artist is also a much sought-after graphic designer. Rounding out her busy schedule, she manages to find time to teach her ever popular acrylic painting workshops throughout Ontario..

---